Born into a royal family in present-day Nepal, Siddhartha was sheltered from suffering but eventually encountered aging, illness, death, and ascetics during his explorations beyond palace walls. These encounters prompted him to seek a path to liberation from suffering.

The Enlightenment

After years of meditation and ascetic practices, Siddhartha attained enlightenment under a Bodhi tree in Bodh Gaya. He realized the Four Noble Truths, which form the foundation of Buddhist philosophy:

- Life involves suffering (dukkha).
